

Hiley Automotive Group Acquires Two Moritz Dealerships in Fort Worth

Camp Bowie West stores will become Randy Hiley Chevrolet and Randy Hiley Chrysler Dodge Jeep Ram, expanding the family-owned group to 16 locations

FORT WORTH, Texas (Oct. 7, 2026) – Hiley Automotive Group, a family-owned dealership group founded in 1990, officially announced today that it has acquired Moritz Chevrolet and Moritz Chrysler Dodge Jeep Ram on Camp Bowie West Boulevard in Fort Worth. The dealerships will operate as Randy Hiley Chevrolet and Randy Hiley Chrysler Dodge Jeep Ram, named after the company's founder, Randy Hiley. With the acquisition, Hiley Automotive Group now has 16 locations representing 13 automotive brands across Texas and Alabama.

The two dealerships join five other Hiley locations in the Fort Worth area. This is the group's second acquisition of a family-owned dealership business in two years and its second Chevrolet store, following the 2025 acquisition of Hiley Chevrolet of Rockwall. Many family dealerships are being sold to larger groups. The Hiley family is taking a different path and building a business to carry forward for generations. Randy Hiley began his automotive career in Fort Worth in 1967 and founded Hiley Automotive Group in Arlington with Randy Hiley Mazda Volkswagen in 1990. Naming the two stores for him brings that story back to the city where it began.

"Chevrolet was the dream for me as a kid. My dad got his start in the truck business, and I always hoped we'd bring that part of our story back home to Fort Worth," said Jason Hiley, president and CEO of Hiley Automotive Group. "It's taken years of hard work to get here, and putting my dad's name on these stores makes this moment mean even more."

A larger network gives the group more flexibility to serve families and residents in the area, and to invest in its employees and local communities. For the Hiley family, growth also brings a greater responsibility to deliver the same standard at every location. That standard is simple: take care of people and do your best, one deal and one customer at a time.

PRESS RELEASE

"Families are paying close attention to what they spend on a vehicle," Jason Hiley added. "We want to earn their trust with five-star service by helping them with their vehicle needs, while giving our employees the support to do their best work in the most meaningful way." With the addition of Randy Hiley Chevrolet and Randy Hiley Chrysler Dodge Jeep Ram, Hiley Automotive Group now operates seven locations in the Fort Worth area, where the Hiley family's automotive story began.
